
Forms Orders

OVERVIEW

Forms may be ordered directly from the USCIS website. If you don't have access to the Internet at home or work, check with your public library. You can download forms and instructions from our website at www.uscis.gov or you may make a telephonic order by calling our Forms phone line at 1-800-870-3676.

Bulk form orders, such as large quantity orders for attorneys or community organizations, etc. must be processed through the Government Printing Office (GPO) at 202-512-1800 or online at www.gpoaccess.gov.

Please note, we encourage you to use the USCIS website first and the Forms phone line second.

Once you receive the forms, read the instructions carefully. If you need more information about how to fill out the forms or how to file them, please check our website or call our customer service line at 1-800-375-5283.

If you already know what form(s) you'll need, you can download them from our website here, or you may make a telephonic order by calling our Forms phone line at 1-800-870-3676.

If you do not have access to the Internet or do not wish to call the Forms phone line, a customer service representative at our toll free number can order the form(s) for you but it is quicker to go to your local library or find Internet access in another way, to download the form(s). Customers should expect to receive form(s) within 7 to 10 days if ordered by phone.

In addition, if you need a large quantity of forms, you should contact the Government Printing Office (GPO). Bulk forms may be ordered online from the GPO at their web site, www.gpoaccess.gov

To order forms to be sent to you by mail, click here.
